Dear Chairperson,

Replacing the Company Constitution: Smith Super Fund Pty Ltd

Thank you for instructing us to prepare the attached Company Constitution Replacement.

How to print your document

When you are satisfied that the document is according to your instructions please:

1. Download the PDF (Don't print directly from the browser.)
2. Print the PDF Printer settings: A4 paper
100% scale (turn off 'fit to page')
3. Print single sided (NOT duplex).
4. Once signed keep this covering letter with the document.
(However, do not staple the covering letter to the document)

Where do I store the documents?

The documents required to update your Company's Constitution under the Australian Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) are attached. The documents include:

- the Constitution; and
- Member Minutes

Keep the document as part of your Company's statutory records.

ASIC requires nothing from you

Unless you are converting your company into a Special Purpose Company, you do not send a copy of the Constitution to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). ASIC does not require Proprietary Limited companies to lodge a copy of their updated Constitution. See section 136(5) of the Australian Corporations Act. There are also no ASIC fees.

Every Member must sign the Member Minutes

As we have drafted the update, every Member (also known as a shareholder) of the Company must sign to give his, her or its consent. If you cannot get every shareholder to sign please telephone us.

What is a Company Constitution?

The Constitution is a contract between the company, directors and shareholders (members). It is not mandatory to create a Constitution as your internal procedures are governed by statutory Replaceable Rules.¹ These are outlined at section 141 of the Corporations Act. However, it is rare that an accountant, lawyer or financial adviser would advise your company to rely on these statutory Replaceable Rules. This is because Replaceable Rules are not tailored to your specific needs. Relying on Replaceable Rules is not best practice.

Constitution vs Replaceable Rules

Your company must have a set of rules. The rules are either in:

1. Constitution – attached to this letter; or failing that;
2. Replacement Rules – which are set out in the Corporations Act.

We often review a company incorporated by a non-law firm. To 'save time' the non-law firm website adopts Replacement Rules for:

1. a sole director, sole member company; or
2. a Self-Managed Super Fund corporate trustee (special purpose company)

However, both companies must have a Constitution.

Further, the Replaceable Rules are the bare minimum. There are many additional powers that a company should have – your Constitution contains these additional powers and benefits.

Also, the Replaceable Rules change at the whim of the current government. While the changes may benefit 'society' they may not be in the best interests of the shareholders. In contrast, Constitutions can be amended at any time by the Members, just as you have done.

Your updated Company Constitution

Your Constitution is updated to reflect your company's internal rules and procedures. Changes in the Corporations Act are reflected in your updated Constitution.

(a) Technology

Technology has changed how a board can communicate with employees and shareholders. Your Constitution is updated to reflect how changes in technology affect your business operations. Traditionally board decisions are mailed out in physical form to shareholders. However, in today's modern world email is a faster form of communication that is used by many businesses to correspond with shareholders. Your updated Constitution takes into consideration how instantaneous communication affects your shareholders. Further, your Constitution outlines how technology can be used in meetings.

(b) Dividends

In 2010, the Australian government amended section 254 of the Corporations Act. This section governs how dividends are paid.

Before 2010 the Corporations Act stated that dividends could only be paid from company profits.² However, after 2010 a company is not allowed to declare a dividend unless:

- (i) the company's assets exceed its liabilities; and
- (ii) the payment is fair and reasonable; and
- (iii) the payment does not materially prejudice the company's ability to pay its creditors.³

Under an old Constitution, you may not have been able to legally pay dividends. Insolvency specialists pursue this argument. They challenge all dividends that you have been paid since 2010.

(c) Direct voting

Shareholders can cast a vote regarding a meeting. This can now be either online or through personalised voting forms. Members do not need to attend the meeting and can appoint a proxy.⁴ Your Constitution has been updated to improve the efficiency of how your meetings are conducted through direct voting.

(d) Share buy backs

Share buy backs allow companies to buy back its shares from the shareholders. The types of share buy backs that exist in Australia include: equal access, on-market, employee share scheme, selective buy-back and minimum holding.⁵ Your Constitution has been updated to ensure that a share buyback is permitted.⁶

(e) Preference shares

A company has the power to issue preference shares under Australian law.⁷ However, rights attached with these preference shares should be outlined in the Constitution. Your new Constitution ensures that the preference shares are clear.

² Section 254 Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)

³ Section 254T Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

⁴ Direct Voting Regulations 2011 Reg 4.1 < http://www.asx.com.au/documents/asx-news/direct_voting_regulations.PDF>

⁵ Australian Securities & Investments Commission, Share buy backs< <http://asic.gov.au/for-business/running-a-company/shares/share-buy-backs/>>

⁷ Section 254A Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

(f) Directors

The Corporations Act now permits sole director companies. You now only have to have one director for your company. Before this time, you had to have a minimum of 2 directors. This would often be a wife and husband.

Having two directors was a disaster for asset protection. Both directors would often go bankrupt along with the insolvent company. Similarly, if money was owed to the Australian Tax Office for PAYG or superannuation all the directors would be liable automatically for such unpaid debts.

Asset protection at a basic level is having no assets in a risky person's name and having it all in a safe person's name. This is often called the man of straw and the woman of substance.

Your new Constitution allows you to have a single director.

Division 7A Loan Agreement

Your updated Constitution contains a Division 7A Loan agreement. It works for each Member and for any new Member. It however does not protect non-members like a spouse, children or Family Trust that are not shareholders of the company.

This is because the Constitution is a contract between the shareholder and the company. If a person or a trust is not a shareholder (and the Company lends or may lend them money) then build a separate Division 7A Deed for that person.

Common faults in old Constitutions and Memo & Articles

Australian companies created before 1 July 1998 had a 'Memorandum & Articles of Association' (M&A). Like old Constitutions, your M&A still operates but not well. Much like many old Constitutions, faults with the M&A include:

1. requiring an Annual General Meeting (AGM). However, the law no longer requires an AGM for Pty Ltd companies. No one has AGMs anymore, but if you don't then your company is non-compliant for both taxation and insolvency laws. Your new Constitution ensures that you don't have to have AGMs.
2. stating a 'list of objects'. This is the purpose of the company. E.g. 'sell fishing tackle and retail'. If your company now does something else, such as acting like a trustee of a doctor surgery then you break the law. Your company is 'ultra vires'. It is acting outside its powers. Again, your company is non-compliant. Legal Consolidated's Constitution allows you to do anything a human can do – and more.
3. requiring two directors. The laws have changed. You now only need one director. It is safer to only have one director in case the company goes insolvent. This is further discussed above.
4. setting up out of date and often illegal procedures. These include how to:
 - (a) exercise corporate powers
 - (b) issue and allot shares
 - (c) not avoid liability (a very strange requirement)
 - (d) transfer shares
 - (e) vote and proxies

- (f) appoint directors and company secretary
- (g) conduct general and director meetings
- (h) sign bank documents, loans and mortgages (however this may be useful because banks often cannot enforce a loan made by a company that is still working under the old Constitution or M&A)

Your old Constitution may have unusual requirements. For example, the consent of your grandfather or the person that started the company may be required. Consent of a particular person is rare. If it is required get them to sign the Minutes as evidence of their consent.

Changing the company to be a Special Purpose Company

If you have changed the company to be a Special Purpose Company then:

The old company must have a balance sheet of zero

Your Special Purpose Company must not have any assets in it (other than the share capital for the shares). Its only job now is to be the trustee of the Self-Managed Superannuation Fund. It can't do anything else.

Every Member signs the Member Minutes

As we have drafted the update, each shareholder signs to give their consent.

Also, remember before you make the company the trustee of the SMSF:

1. all the directors must be members of the SMSF
2. all the members of the SMSF must be directors of the company

Example 1:

John, Jeff and Mary are the current directors of the company. But Jeff is not a member of the SMSF. Jeff must resign as a director of the company before the company can be the trustee of the SMSF.

Example 2:

Paul and Fiona are the only directors of the company. But their daughter Ainsley, together with Paul and Fiona, is a member of the SMSF. Therefore, before the company can be made the trustee of the SMSF, Ainsley will need to be made a director, as well.

Let ASIC know

You need to let ASIC know that your Company is now a Special Purpose Company and entitled to get the lower annual ASIC fees.

If you need further help you are welcome to telephone us on 1800 141 612.
This now concludes the matter. Thank you for your instructions.

Yours sincerely,

1. The New Constitution is interpreted to reduce taxes, imposts, duties and stamp duty (including State and federal) (Taxes) and avoid any illegality. If any clause nonetheless fails to reduce Taxes or is illegal, it is severed, read down or fettered, as required, from the New Constitution to the extent of the illegality or in the furtherance of the reduction of the Taxes.
2. The New Constitution is read down so that no mandatory taxation law or Taxes, from time to time, is contravened that would lead to an unfavourable taxation position.
3. Any class of shares will not be altered. There is no change of rights or beneficial interest in the shares. Further, no class of shares has been altered so as to trigger any Taxes including Capital Gains Tax or transfer duty (stamp duty).
4. Each director and the company itself confirm that the law firm preparing the New Constitution has provided no taxation, (stamp) duty and any other tax advice on the New Constitution. i
5. The law firm preparing the New Constitution, it is acknowledged, only acts for the company, in its own capacity. To put the matter beyond doubt the law firm does not act for shareholders, members, directors or any other persons.

5.10.3 an application for the allotment of Shares or the acceptance of a transfer of Shares to an infant may be signed by any parent or legally constituted guardian of the infant acting or purporting to or claiming to act on behalf of the infant, and that signature is valid and sufficient

This Article does not apply in the case where a parent or guardian of an infant or proposed member has served upon the Company written notice stating that the parent or guardian objects to the application of this Article, unless the person giving the notice withdraws that notice or dies or (if a guardian of the infant) ceases to act as that guardian.

5.11 Options

- 5.11.1 Subject to this Constitution and the Law, the Directors may grant to any person an option to acquire or subscribe for Shares during such time and for such consideration as they think fit.
- 5.11.2 An Option must be granted on terms such that the issue of a Share pursuant to the exercise of the Option complies with this Constitution and the Law.

6. OFFERS OF SHARES

6.1 Pre-Emption On Issue of New Shares

- 6.1.1 Subject to any direction to the contrary given by the Members of the Company by way of a Special Majority Vote in a general meeting, before issuing new Shares (or options over Shares) to any person, all un-issued Shares of a particular class must, before being issued to a person who is not a Member, be offered to the existing Members in accordance with this Article 6.1.
- 6.1.2 The offer must be made by notice specifying the number and class of Shares being offered (the Issue Shares).
- 6.1.3 The notice must specify that the Member has a period of at least 10 Business Days from the date of such notice within which to apply for some or all of the Issue Shares.
- 6.1.4 It must be a term of the offer under this Article 6.1 that, if Members of more than one class apply for some or all of the Issue Shares, the Issue Shares are treated as having been offered:
 - (a) first, to all persons holding Shares of the same class as the Issue Shares, in priority to the remaining classes of Members; and
 - (b) thereafter, to the extent that all of the Issue Shares have not been applied for by such class of Members, the Issue Shares are to be treated as having been offered to all of the Members holding the remaining classes of Shares.
- 6.1.5 It must be a further term of the offer that, if there is competition within any class of Members for the Issue Shares treated as having been offered to that class, such Issue Shares are treated as offered among such class of Members in proportion (as nearly as may be, ignoring fractions of Shares) to their existing holdings of Shares of the class to which the offer is treated as having been made (the Proportionate Allocation). However, in their application for Issue Shares a Member may, if they so desire, indicate that they would be willing to purchase a particular number of Shares in excess of his Proportionate Allocation (Extra Shares).
- 6.1.6 In respect of each of the categories of offeree, the Company must allocate the Issue Shares as follows:
 - (a) If the total number of Issue Shares applied for is equal to or less than the available number of Issue Shares, each Member must be allocated the number applied for in accordance with his application; or

- (b) If the total number of Issue Shares applied for is greater than the available number of Issue Shares, each Member must be allocated his Proportionate Allocation, or such lesser number of Issue Shares for which he has applied, and applications for Extra Shares must be allocated in accordance with such applications or, in the event of competition, among those Members applying for Extra Shares in such proportions as equal (as nearly as may be) the proportions of all the Shares of the same class held by such Members.
- 6.1.7 Allocations of Issue Shares made by the Company pursuant to Article 6.1.6 constitutes the acceptance by the persons to whom they are allocated of the offer to subscribe for those Issue Shares on the terms offered to them, provided that no person is obliged to take more than the maximum number of Issue Shares that they have indicated to the Company they are willing to subscribe for.
- 6.1.8 The Company must give notice in writing (an Allocation Notice) to each person to whom Issue Shares have been so allocated of the number of Issue Shares so allocated and the aggregate subscription price payable. Completion of the issue of those Issue Shares in accordance with the Allocation Notice must take place within 20 Business Days after the date of the Allocation Notice, whereupon the Company must, upon payment by the offeree of the subscription price due in respect thereof, issue those Issue Shares specified in the Allocation Notice to the persons to whom they have been allocated and deliver the relevant Share certificates.
- 6.1.9 The Directors may issue any Issue Shares that are not otherwise subject to an Allocation Notice (Residual Shares) as they think fit, subject only to this Constitution and the Law.

PROVIDED THAT any Residual Shares must not be offered to any person on terms that are more favourable than those terms on which such Shares were first offered to Members pursuant to this Article 6.1. Without limiting the forgoing, the Directors may issue the Residual Shares to one or more third parties who are not existing Members of the Company.

- 6.1.10 All persons to whom new Shares are to be issued must sign a form of application as the Company may from time to time prescribe, including an undertaking to be bound by the terms of this Constitution.

6.2 Limited Application of Pre-Emption On Issue of New Shares

The provisions of Article 6.1 do not apply to:

- 6.2.1 An issue of Shares pursuant to the exercise of an option duly granted by the Company pursuant to this Constitution over one or more un-issued Share in the Company; or

- 7.1.1 No transfer of the beneficial interest in any Share may be made if this Constitution does not permit a transfer of the legal ownership of such Share.
- 7.1.2 Any dealing with any Share in violation of any of the provisions of this Constitution is void.
- 7.1.3 Each Member agrees with the Company and the other Members that, in addition to the requirements of this Constitution, he or she will not create or allow to be created any claim, charge, lien, encumbrance or equity on, or over or affecting any of his Shares unless:
 - (a) the Board gives its written consent; and
 - (b) the proposed holder of the encumbrance expressly agrees in writing that its security is subject to the rights of the other Members under this Constitution.

7.2 Permitted Transfers

- 7.2.1 The restriction on transfers of Shares provided for in this Constitution does not apply to a bona fide transfer of Shares:
 - (a) to the Spouse of a Member;
 - (b) to the Personal Representative of a Member pursuant to Article 7.3;
 - (c) to any nominee who, immediately after the transfer, will hold the Shares only as a bare nominee for the Member;
 - (d) merely for the purpose of effectuating the appointment or retirement of a trustee of an existing trust on which the Shares are held;
 - (e) if the Member is a company, to any Related Body Corporate of the Member, or to the shareholders of the Member in proportion to their shareholdings in the Member;
 - (f) to a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) of a superannuation fund (in respect of which the beneficiary is a trustee or a director of the trustee company);
 - (g) next of kin of a deceased Member; or
 - (h) where the transfer is approved by a Special Majority Vote of the Board.
- 7.2.2 For the purposes of this Constitution:

 - (b) subject to Article 7.9 (Compliance), the Company is obliged to register any transfer made pursuant to a Permitted Transfer described in this Article 7.2.

7.3 Transmission of Shares

- 7.3.1 In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor (where he was a joint holder), or the Personal Representative (where he was a sole holder) is the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title or interest in the Share.

This election must be in writing and executed by the person taking transfer of the Share.

7.4 Pre-Emption Rights

7.4.1 Except in the case of a transfer pursuant to Article 7.2 (Permitted Transfers) or Article 7.6 (Come Along), a Member who wishes to transfer any Shares (the Seller) must give notice in writing of such wish to the Company (a Transfer Notice).

7.4.2 Each Transfer Notice must:

- (a) Relate to one class of Shares only;
- (b) Relate to a Minimum Parcel of Shares, unless the Transfer Notice is a "deemed" transfer notice under another Article of this Constitution

AND if the transfer would otherwise result in the Member holding less than a Minimum Parcel of Shares: the transfer must relate to the whole of the Member's shareholding in the Company;

- (c) in each case, unless the Board consents in writing to a lower number of Shares;
- (d) Specify the number and class of Shares which the Seller wishes to transfer (the Sale Shares);
- (e) Specify the identity of any person to whom the Seller wishes to transfer the Sale Shares (the Proposed Transferee);
- (f) Specify the price per Share (the Proposed Sale Price) at which the Seller wishes to transfer the Sale Shares;

- (h) Not be varied or cancelled until the expiry of 20 Business Days from the determination of the Sale price under Article 7.5.

7.4.3 The Seller may provide in the Transfer Notice that unless buyers are found for all and not less than a specified number of the Sale Shares, they are not bound to transfer any of such Shares (Minimum Transfer Condition), and any such provision is binding on the Company.

7.4.4 Notwithstanding Article 7.4.3, if the Transfer Notice contains a Minimum Transfer Condition, the Company may not make any allocation of Sale Shares unless and until it has found buyers for the minimum number specified in the Minimum Transfer Condition.

7.4.5 The Company may within 5 Business Days of determining the Sale Price under Article 7.5, give a notice to the Seller stating that the Company wishes to repurchase the Sale Shares, in which case the Seller will be bound on payment of the Sale Price, to transfer or redeem the Sale Shares to the Company, with

- settlement to occur within 30 Business Days of the determination of the Sale Price.
- 7.4.6 If the Company does not exercise the repurchase option under Article 7.4.5 then, subject to the application of Article 7.4.7, the Company must within 10 Business Days of determining the Sale Price under Article 7.5 give notice in writing to each of the Members (other than the Seller) offering for sale the Sale Shares at the Sale Price.
- 7.4.7 If the Board considers that the provisions of Article 7.4.6 could mean that the offer of the Sale Shares would require a prospectus, the Board must devise such other method of offering such Sale Shares which does not require a prospectus, (including, but without limitation, offering the Sale Shares to a limited number of Members selected by such method as the Board shall determine at its absolute discretion).
- 7.4.8 The notice provided under Article 7.4.6 must specify that the Member has a period of 15 Business Days from the date of such notice within which to apply for some or all of the Sale Shares. It must be a term of the offer that, if Members of more than one class apply for some or all of the Sale Shares, the Sale Shares are treated as having been offered:
- (a) first, to all persons (other than the Seller) holding Shares of the same class as the Sale Shares, in priority to the remaining class of Members; and
 - (b) thereafter, to the extent that all of the Sale Shares have not been applied for by such class of Members, the Sale Shares are treated as having been offered to all of the Members holding the remaining classes of Shares.
- 7.4.9 It must be a further term of the offer that, if there is competition within any class of Members for the Sale Shares treated as having been offered to that class, such Sale Shares are treated as offered among such class of Members in proportion (as nearly as may be) to their existing holdings of Shares of the class to which the offer is treated as having been made (the Proportionate Allocation). However, in the application for Sale Shares a Member may, if the Member so desires, indicate they are willing to purchase a particular number of Shares in excess of their Proportionate Allocation (Extra Shares).
- 7.4.10 In respect of each of the categories of offeree, the Company must allocate the Sale Shares as follows:
- (a) If the total number of Sale Shares applied for is equal to or less than the available number of Sale Shares, each Member must be allocated the number applied for in accordance with the Member's application; or
 - (b) If the total number of Sale Shares applied for is greater than the available number of Sale Shares:
 - (i) each Member must be allocated their Proportionate Allocation, or such lesser number of Sale Shares for which the Member has applied; and
 - (ii) applications for Extra Shares must be allocated in accordance with such applications or, in the event of competition, among those Members applying for Extra Shares in such proportions as equal to (as nearly as may be) the proportions of all the Shares of the same class held by such Members.

- 7.4.11 Allocations of Sale Shares made by the Company pursuant to Article 7.4.10 constitutes the acceptance by the persons to whom they are allocated of the offer to purchase those Sale Shares on the terms offered to them, provided that no person is obliged to take more than the maximum number of Sale Shares that the Member has indicated to the Company they are willing to purchase.
- 7.4.12 The Company must forthwith on allocating any Sale Shares give notice in writing (a Sale Notice) to the Seller and to each person to whom Sale Shares have been so allocated of:
- (a) the number of Sale Shares so allocated; and
 - (b) the aggregate price payable therefore.
- 7.4.13 Completion of the sale and purchase of the Sale Shares in accordance with the Sale Notice must take place within 20 Business Days after the date of the Sale Notice, whereupon the Seller must, upon payment of the price due in respect thereof, transfer the Sale Shares specified in the Sale Notice to the persons to whom they have been allocated, and deliver the relevant Share certificates.
- 7.4.14 In the case of an acquisition of Sale Shares by the Company, if the Seller defaults in transferring any Sale Shares pursuant to Article 7.4.13:
- (a) the Company may receive such purchase money and may nominate some person to execute an instrument of transfer of such Sale Shares in the name and on behalf of the Seller;
 - (b) when such instrument has been duly stamped, the Company must enter the name of proposed transferee into register of members as the holder of such Sale Shares and hold the purchase money on trust (without interest) for the Seller; and
 - (c) the receipt of the Company for the purchase money is a good discharge to the proposed transferee (who is not bound to see to the application thereof) and, after his name has been so entered in the register of members, the validity of the proceedings may not be questioned by any person.
- 7.4.15 In the case of an acquisition of Sale Shares by the Company, if the Seller defaults in transferring any Sale Shares pursuant to Article 7.4.5:
- (a) the Company may nominate some person to execute an instrument of transfer of such Sale Shares in the name and on behalf of the Seller (as the Seller's duly authorised attorney);
 - (b) when such instrument has been duly stamped, the Company must cause such Share capital to be cancelled in accordance with the Act; and
 - (c) the Company must hold the purchase money due to the Seller on trust (without interest) for the Seller.
- 7.4.16 If all the Sale Shares are not sold under the pre-emption provisions contained in these Articles 7.4.1 to 7.4.15 (inclusive), the Company shall (forthwith upon the exhaustion of such provisions):

- (a) notify the Seller that the pre-emption provisions have been exhausted; and
- (b) the Seller may at any time within 3 calendar months after receiving such notification, transfer to the Proposed Transferee any unsold Sale Shares at any price not less than the Sale Price, provided that:
 - (i) if the Seller stipulated in the Transfer Notice a Minimum Transfer Condition which has not been satisfied, the Seller shall not be entitled to sell any Sale Shares unless the Seller complies with such Minimum Transfer Condition; and
 - (ii) if the Seller stipulated any other conditions in the Transfer Notice, the Seller shall not be entitled to sell any Sale Shares unless the Seller imposes conditions on the sale to the third party which are at least as onerous as those conditions; and
 - (iii) any such sale shall be a sale in good faith; and
 - (iv) the Directors may as a transfer condition require the Seller to satisfy the Directors (in such manner as the Directors may reasonably think fit) that the Sale Shares are being sold for no less than the Sale Price (without any deduction, rebate or allowance whatsoever), and otherwise on no less favourable conditions, and if the Directors are not so satisfied, the Directors may refuse to register the transfer.

7.5 Sale Price

7.5.1 The Sale Price in respect of the Sale Shares is:

- (a) the Proposed Sale Price specified by the Seller; or
- (b) at the option of the Company:
 - (i) where the Board does not accept that the Proposed Sale Price represents a fair value for the Sale Shares; and
 - (ii) the Seller and the Company are not able to agree on a Sale Price by negotiation within 10 Business Days of receipt of the Transfer Notice the fair value is to be fixed in accordance with Article 7.5.2.

7.5.2 For the purposes of this Article, the fair value of the Sale Shares must be determined as follows:

- (a) The fair value of the Sale Shares must be determined as the relevant proportion of the fair value of the Company as a whole, and on the assumption of a going concern (unless the assumption of a going concern cannot reasonably be made);
- (b) No allowance is to be made for any "minority discount" that would ordinarily attach to the Sale Shares (if any);
- (c) The fair value of the Sale Shares must be determined by an independent valuer appointed jointly by the Seller and the Company, or in the absence of such agreed appointment within 5 Business Days, a valuer appointed by the President of the Law Society of the State on the application of either party (the Valuer);

- (d) In determining the fair value of the Shares the Valuer may take into account any bona fide third party offer to purchase the Sale Shares that has been received by the Seller as a material but not determining factor;
- (e) The Valuer must certify in writing the sum which, in the Valuer's opinion, is the fair value of the Sale Shares and give notice in writing to both parties of the sum so certified. In certifying as to the fair value of the Sale Shares, the Valuer acts as an expert and not an arbitrator; and
- (f) The costs of the Valuer must be borne equally by the Seller and the Company.

7.5.3 The fair value fixed in accordance with this Article 7.5 will be binding and the Seller must complete the transfer of the Sale Shares at the fair value so fixed by the Valuer.

7.6 Qualifying Offers (Come Along)

7.6.1 In this Constitution a Qualifying Offer means a bona fide offer at arm's length in writing by or on behalf of any person (the Outside Offeror) to the holders of all Shares in the Company to acquire all their Shares.

7.6.2 For the purposes of Article 7.6.1, an offer from a party who is an Associate of a person holding no less than 50% of the ordinary Shares in the Company does not constitute a bona fide offer at arm's length.

7.6.3 If the holders of not less than 75% in nominal value of the fully-paid Ordinary Shares then on issue (the Accepting Members) wish to accept the Qualifying Offer, then the provisions of Articles 7.6.4 to 7.6.6 (inclusive) apply.

7.6.4 The Accepting Members must give written notice (the Come Along Notice) to the remaining Members (the Other Members) of their wish to accept the Qualifying Offer and the Other Members are, subject to the operation of Article 7.6.5, thereupon unconditionally bound to:

- (a) accept the Qualifying Offer;
- (b) provide to the Outside Offeror a warranty that they hold full title to their Shares; and
- (c) transfer their Shares to the Outside Offeror (or his nominee) on the date specified by the Accepting Members.

7.6.5 The Other Members:

- (a) have the right (between them in proportion to their respective holdings of Shares on the date of the relevant Come Along Notice, or in such other proportions as they agree between them and specify in that notice) to purchase all (and not only a proportion) of the Shares proposed to be sold by the Accepting Members pursuant to the relevant Qualifying Offer (the Assented Shares) for the same price and on the same terms (save that any counter-offer must be unconditional in all respects) as the said offer, and in priority to the rights of the Outside Offeror under such offer; and
- (b) must between them:

- (i) notify the Accepting Members of the exercise of that right by written notice (a Matching Notice) given within 15 Business Days of the giving of the Come Along Notice; and
 - (ii) complete the purchase within the earlier of the completion date contemplated in the Qualifying Offer and 40 Business Days of the serving of the Matching Notice.
- (c) If a Matching Notice is served it obliges the Accepting Members and the Other Members who served the Matching Notice to complete the sale and purchase of the Assented Shares on the said terms, and Article 7.6.6 shall apply mutatis mutandis for that purpose.

7.6.6 If any Other Member does not, within 5 Business Days of being required to do so, execute and deliver transfers in respect of the Shares held by them and deliver the certificate(s) in respect of the same or a suitable indemnity in lieu thereof, then any Accepting Member is entitled to:

- (a) execute, and are entitled to authorise and instruct such person as they think fit to execute the necessary transfer(s) and indemnities on the Other Members' behalf (as their duly appointed attorney);
- (b) against receipt by the Company (on trust for those shareholders) of the consideration payable for the relevant Shares, deliver such transfer(s), certificate(s) or indemnities to the Outside Offeror (or his nominee); and
- (c) register that Outside Offeror (or his nominee) as the holder thereof

AND after such registration, the validity of such proceedings may not be questioned by any person.

7.7 Qualifying Disposals (Tag Along)

- 7.7.1 If at any time one or more Members (the Proposed Sellers) propose to sell, in one or a series of related transactions (the Proposed Transaction), more than 50% in nominal value of the fully-paid Ordinary Shares (the Majority Holding) to any person, other than pursuant to Article 7.2 (Permitted Transfers) or Article 7.6 (Come Along), the Proposed Sellers may only sell the Majority Holding if they comply with the provisions of Articles 7.7.3 to 7.7.6 (inclusive).
- 7.7.2 For the avoidance of doubt, compliance with the provisions of Articles 7.7.3 to 7.7.6 (inclusive) may be included as a condition precedent to completion of the Proposed Transaction.
- 7.7.3 The Proposed Sellers must give written notice (the Proposed Sale Notice) to the other holders of the Ordinary Shares of the Proposed Transaction at least 15 Business Days prior to the date on which the Proposed Transaction becomes unconditional or otherwise terminates.
- 7.7.4 The Proposed Sale Notice must set out, to the extent not described in any accompanying documents:
- (a) the identity of the proposed buyer (the Proposed Buyer);
 - (b) the purchase price and other terms and conditions of payment;
 - (c) the proposed date of sale (the Proposed Sale Date); and

(d) the number of Shares proposed to be purchased by the Proposed Buyer (the Proposed Sale Shares).

7.7.5 Any other holder of fully-paid Ordinary Shares in the Company is entitled, by written notice given to the Proposed Sellers within 10 Business Days of receipt of the Proposed Sale Notice, to require the Proposed Sellers to procure the sale of all or some of their fully-paid Ordinary Shares to the Proposed Buyer on the same terms and conditions as those set out in the Proposed Sale Notice.

7.7.6 If any other holder of Shares is not given the rights accorded him by the provisions of this Article 7.7, the Proposed Seller is required not to complete the Proposed Transaction, and the Company is bound to refuse to register any transfer intended to carry the Proposed Transaction into effect.

7.8 Take-Over of Member

7.8.1 On the date when a Change-in-Control of a Member (the Taken-Over Party) occurs, the Taken-Over Party is deemed to have issued a notice in writing (the Transfer Notice) to the Company and to the other Members (the Receiving Parties) offering to sell all of the Shares held by the Taken-Over Party (the Offered Shares) to the Receiving Parties (the Offer) at an open market value per Share determined by an Independent Valuer appointed by the Company:

- (a) as at the date when the change in control took place;
- (b) at the cost of the Taken-Over Party;
- (c) on the instructions of the Company or one or more other Members; and
- (d) within 10 Business Days of receiving those instructions.

7.8.2 Any of the Receiving Parties (the Buying Parties) may, within 20 Business Days of receiving the determination of the Independent Valuer under Clause 7.8.1, by notice in writing to the Taken-Over Party, accept the Offer.

7.8.3 Where there is more than one Buying Party, each may agree to accept all or any of the Offered Shares, but in total not less than all of the Offered Shares, and if on acceptance the demand by the Buying Parties exceeds the number of Offered Shares, the Offer is deemed to be accepted by the Buying Parties pro-rata to their existing shareholdings.

7.8.4 Completion of the sale of the Offered Shares accepted by a Buying Party must take place within 20 Business Days after the date that the notice under Clause 7.8.2 accepting the Offer is given to the Taken-Over Party at a time and place to be agreed by the Buying Party and the Taken-Over Party, or failing agreement, at 11.00am on the next Business Day after the 20 Business Day period at the registered office of the Company.

7.8.5 On completion of the sale of the Offered Shares:

- (a) the Buying Parties must pay the purchase price to the Taken-Over Party for the Offered Shares accepted by the Buying Parties; and
- (b) the Taken-Over Party must deliver to the Buying Parties the certificates for the Offered Shares and transfers of the Offered Shares executed by the Taken-Over Party.

- 7.8.6 If the Taken-Over Party defaults in complying with Clause 7.8.5, the Company is irrevocably authorised by the Taken-Over Party to receive the purchase money and to execute transfers of the Offered Shares to the Buying Parties on behalf of the Taken-Over Party. Following execution and stamping of the appropriate transfers, the Trustee must register the transfers of the Offered Shares and the Company must hold the purchase money on trust for the Taken-Over Party. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money is a good discharge to the Buying Parties and after their names have been entered in the register under the Clause 7.8.5(b) the validity of the actions of the Company hereunder may not be questioned by any person.

7.9 Compliance

For the purpose of ensuring compliance with the transfer provisions in Article 7, the Company may require any Member to procure that:

- 7.9.1 he or she; or
- 7.9.2 any Proposed Transferee; or
- 7.9.3 such other person as is reasonably believed to have information and/or evidence relevant to such purpose

- 7.9.4 the Company must refuse to register any relevant transfer; and/or
- 7.9.5 the Company must refuse to recognise the bearer of any Shares, or permit such person to exercise any right as a member of the Company; and/or
- 7.9.6 if such Member is not a Defaulting Member, such Member must forthwith be treated as being a Defaulting Member under this Constitution.

7.10 Procedures

- (a) The Directors may from time to time make calls on the Members in respect of any money that remains unpaid of any one or more Shares; and
 - (b) Each Member must, within 10 Business Days of the issue of a notice specifying the place and maximum time for payment, pay to the Company the amount called on that Member's Share or Shares under Article 12.1.1(a).

 - (b) revoke a call
- by issue of a notice in writing to the relevant Members.

- 12.1.3 No call is payable within 20 Business Days after the date fixed for payment under any preceding call in relation to the same Share.

12.2 Forfeiture of Shares

In the event that a Member fails to pay any call within the time allowed under Article 12.1.1(b), or fails to pay any instalment towards the subscription price of any Share as agreed at the time of application and subscription:

 - (a) any interest accrued thereon at the rate per annum (if any) agreed at the time of application and subscription (the Call Rate) (unless waived); and

 - (a) the relevant Share may be forfeited by a Simple Majority Vote of the Directors;
 - (b) the forfeiture includes any Dividends declared but remaining unpaid in respect of that Share at the time of the forfeiture; and
 - (c) an entry of the forfeiture and the date thereof must thereafter be entered into the register of Members.
- 12.2.4 A forfeited Share is deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may deal with that Share as they think fit.
- 12.2.5 Any Member whose Share has been forfeited remains liable for the payment of all calls, instalments, interest and expenses owing in respect of that Share, and the outstanding amount accrues interest at a rate per annum agreed at the time of application and subscription (if any), and in the absence of such agreement, at the Standard Rate (the Call Default Rate) until payment in full of those amounts. The Directors may enforce the payment of this amount but are not under any obligation so to do.
- 12.2.6 Subject to the Law, the forfeiture of a Share results in the complete extinction of all interests, claims and demands against the Company in respect of that Share, and all other rights provided in respect of that Share.

13. LIEN OVER SHARES

13.1 Subject to Article 13.2 and the Law, the Company has a first lien on:

- (a) The requisition must:
 - (i) state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the persons calling the meeting and be deposited at the registered office of the Company; and
 - (ii) may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more of the persons calling the meeting;
- (b) In the event that the Directors do not within 15 Business Days after receipt of the requisition proceed to convene the meeting, the persons calling the meeting may convene the meeting. However, the meeting must be held not later than 65 Business Days from the date of the requisition;
- (c) In the event that a resolution is to be proposed as a Special Majority Vote, the Directors are deemed not to have duly convened the meeting if they do not give the notice required by the Law; and
- (d) So far as possible, every meeting convened under this Article by the persons calling the meeting must be convened in the same manner as general meetings are convened by the Directors.

14.4.2 A quorum is constituted by Members holding no less than 50% of the total voting rights in the Company that may be cast at that meeting (whether in person, by proxy, by Direct Vote or by a duly authorised representative of a corporation).

14.5 Right of Non-Members To Attend General Meeting

The Chair may invite any person who is not a Member to attend and address a general meeting, including a Director, auditor or Secretary.

14.6 Technology

The Company may hold a meeting of members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting.

14.7 Chair of General Meetings

14.7.1 The Chair of meetings of Directors is also the Chair of a general meeting.

14.7.2 If:

- (a) there is no Chair;
- (b) the Chair is unwilling to act as chair; or
- (c) the Chair is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the general meeting to be held, the Directors may choose another Director to be chair of the meeting. If the Directors fail to do so, or all Directors present decline to be Chair, the Members who are present may choose one of them to be Chair of the Meeting.

14.7.3 The Chair's rulings on any matter relating to the order of business, procedure and conduct of the general meeting are, if made in good faith, final. No motion of dissent from a ruling by the Chair will be accepted.

14.8 Business At General Meetings

14.8.1 All business must be considered and resolved by way of a Simple Majority Vote, unless required to be considered and resolved by way of either a Special Majority Vote or a Unanimous Decision under a term of this Constitution or by the Law.

14.8.2 Subject to this Constitution and the requirements of the Law, a resolution is taken to be carried if the requisite number of qualifying votes is passed in favour of it.

14.9 Voting At General Meetings

14.9.1 Subject to the rights attaching to any particular class of Shares, the voting rights attached to each Share are as set out in this Article:

- (a) On a show of hands, every Member holding one or more Shares, who (being an individual) is present in person, by proxy or by Direct Vote, or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative, by proxy or by Direct Vote, has 1 vote; and
- (b) On a poll, every Member holding one or more Shares or who (being an individual) is present in person, by proxy or by Direct Vote or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative, by proxy or by Direct Vote, has 1 vote for each such Share of which he is the holder.

14.9.2 Unless a poll is demanded by the Chair, or by a Member entitled to vote at the meeting (before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands):

- (a) A resolution put to vote is decided on a show of hands;
- (b) The Chair must make a declaration that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority; and
- (c) An entry to that effect in the record of proceedings of the Company is conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

14.9.3 In the case of joint holders:

- (a) The vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, whether in person, by Direct Vote or by proxy, must be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose, seniority is to be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of Members; and
- (b) Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any Share stands are, for the purpose of this Article, deemed joint holders thereof.

14.9.4 Before taking a vote on a resolution at a general meeting, the Chair must inform the meeting whether any proxy votes or Direct Votes have been received and how any proxy votes or Direct Votes are to be cast.

14.9.5 A Member who is of unsound mind or whose person or estate is dealt with under any law relating to mental health or insolvency may vote whether on a show of hands or on a poll by his committee or by the Public Trustee or by the person (if any) who properly has the management of his affairs or estate. Any committee trustee or other person may vote by proxy or attorney.

14.9.6 A Member is not entitled to be present or to vote at a general meeting unless all calls and other amounts payable at the time of the meeting in respect of Shares held by the Member have been paid in full.

14.9.7 A challenge to a person's entitlement to vote at a general meeting or to the validity of a vote made at that meeting may only be raised at that meeting. The Chair must determine any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote and if made in good faith that determination is final and conclusive.

14.9.8 In the event of an equality of votes cast for and against a question the Chair does not have a second or casting vote.

14.10 The Taking of Polls

14.10.1 A demand of a poll:

- (a) Does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded;
- (b) May be withdrawn before the poll is taken; and
- (c) On a question of adjournment must be taken at the meeting without adjournment.

14.10.2 A poll properly demanded must be taken:

- (a) In the manner and at the time and place that the Chair of the meeting directs; and
- (b) Either at once or after an interval or adjournment.

14.10.3 The result of the poll is deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

14.11 Adjournment of Meetings

14.11.1 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting:

- (a) If the meeting has been called upon a requisition of Members – the meeting must be dissolved; or

 - (i) the same day in the next week at the same time and place; or
 - (ii) the other day and time and place (if any) that the Directors decide and notify the Members of at that adjourned meeting

(as the case may be) and a quorum of any 2 Members present at the adjourned meeting (in person or by proxy) constitutes a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

14.11.2 The Chair of a general meeting may, with the sanction of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. However, no business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

14.12 Failure To Send Notice of Meeting

An accidental omission to send a notice of a general meeting (including a proxy appointment form), the postponement of a general meeting to any Member, or the non-receipt of a notice (or form) by any Member, does not invalidate the proceedings or any resolution passed at the general meeting.

14.13 Chair May Refuse Admission

The Chair of a general meeting may refuse admission to a person, or require a person to leave and not return to a meeting if the person causes, or is likely to cause (in the reasonable opinion of the Chair) any disruption to the meeting.

- (d) the meetings (or meetings) at which the proxy is to be used.

15.1.4 A Member who is entitled to cast 2 or more votes may appoint no more than 2 proxies. A proxy does not have to be a Member of the Company. If a Member appoints 2 proxies, neither can vote on a show of hands. If the appointment does not specify what proportion of votes each is to be proxy for, each may exercise one half of the Member's voting rights. A fraction of a vote is to be disregarded.

15.1.5 An appointment is not invalid merely because it does not specify all this information.

15.1.6 An appointment may be a standing appointment.

15.1.7 An appointment for a meeting is valid for an adjournment of that meeting.

15.2 Revocation of Appointment

15.2.1 A Member who has appointed a proxy may revoke the appointment at any time by giving the Company written notice.

- 15.4.2 The proxy or power of attorney must be accompanied by the authority under which the proxy was signed or a certified copy of the power of attorney. Faxed documents are acceptable.

15.5 Rights of Proxies, Power of Attorneys or other authority

- 15.5.3 If there is no direction, and the person is separately entitled to vote on the resolution, the person may vote on it for the Member as he or she thinks fit.
- 15.5.4 If there is no direction, and the person is not separately entitled to vote on the resolution, he or she must abstain from voting on it.

15.8 Chair May Require Evidence

The Chair of a general meeting may require a person acting as a proxy for a Member to establish that he or she is the person named in the lodged proxy. If the person cannot do so, he or she may be excluded from voting as proxy for the Member.

- 16.6.2 the Member's voting intention on any or all of the resolutions to be put before the meeting.

16.7 Validity

- 16.7.1 A vote cast by Direct Vote is valid despite any of the following:

- (a) the death of the Member or the Member ceasing to have mental capacity;
- (b) the bankruptcy or liquidation of the Member;
- (c) the revocation of the Direct Vote; or
- (d) the transfer of the Share in respect of which the Direct Vote was cast.

16.7.2 This does not apply if the Company receives notice of the relevant fact at its registered office at least 24 hours before the commencement of the meeting (or adjourned meeting) at which the Direct Vote was to have been cast.

16.8 Chairman's Decision

The Chair's decision as to whether a Direct Vote is valid is conclusive.

21.6 Alternate Director Or Proxy and Voting

A person who is present at a meeting of Directors as an Alternate Director or as a proxy for another Director has one vote for each absent Director who would be entitled to vote if present at the meeting and for whom that person is an Alternate Director or proxy and, if that person is also a Director, has one vote as a Director in that capacity.

39.3 Compliance

 - (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties:
 - (i) desire the Solicitor to represent the Company for the purposes of preparing this Constitution; and

Such person will act as an expert not as an arbitrator and will be entitled to appoint such technical expert or experts as he considers necessary to assist him in seeking to resolve the matter referred to him.
- 39.5.6 If the Parties fail to appoint a neutral adviser within the 10 Business Day period referred to in Article 39.5.5 above or the parties fail to reach agreement in the structured negotiations within 20 Business Days of the neutral adviser being appointed, then any dispute may be referred to a court of competent jurisdiction. Neither party is precluded from taking such interim formal steps as may be considered necessary to protect such party's position while the mediation or other procedure is pending or continuing.
- 39.5.7 The costs of the neutral adviser must be borne equally by the parties in dispute.

39.6 Waiver

- 39.6.1 Any waiver or forbearance in regard to the performance of this Constitution operates only if in writing and applies only to the specified instance, and does not affect the existence and continued applicability of the terms of it thereunder.

If any provision of this Constitution should be held to be invalid in any way or unenforceable it is severed and the remaining provisions are not in any way affected or impaired.

As from 1 July after a loan is made by the Company to a Member, the Member must pay interest on the outstanding amount of that loan at the Benchmark Interest Rate as defined in the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth).

1.2 Minimum annual repayment

In relation to each Amalgamated Loan, the Member must make annual repayments by 30 June each year that are at least the minimum yearly repayments as defined in section 109E(5) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth).

1.3 Repayment of loan and interest

The Member must repay each loan to the Company, plus all interest that remains unpaid on it, no later than 7 years from the date the loan is made or is deemed by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth) to have been made. The Member may repay any part of a loan, and any interest on a loan, before that date.

1.4 Company may require security

The Company may at any time require the Member to provide reasonable security for the performance of the Member's obligations under this agreement.

1.5 Costs

The Member must pay the Company the costs it reasonably incurs in connection with a loan under this Schedule C, and any security the member offers or provides under it. This includes stamp duty.

2. Default

2.1 Acceleration of amounts owing under this agreement

The Company may elect to treat all loans made to the member under this Schedule C, and any interest that has accrued but remains unpaid, as payable automatically and immediately if any one or more of the following happens:

2.1.1. The Member fails to pay an amount in accordance with this agreement; or

2.1.2. The Member is Insolvent.

3. General provisions

3.1 Method of payment

The Company may inform the Member in writing that it requires payment under this Schedule C to be made in a specified way.

3.2 Joint and individual liability

Where a member is comprised of more than one person, the obligations imposed on a borrower by this Schedule C are imposed on those persons individually as well as jointly. A breach by any of them is a breach by all of them.

3.3 Waiver

The Company only waives the exercise of a right or the performance of a duty under this Schedule C by specifically waiving it in writing, and then only to the extent it is specifically waived. Nothing else suffices.

3.4 Severability

Each provision in this Schedule C is to be interpreted in a way that makes it enforceable. If anything in this Schedule C is unenforceable, it is to be disregarded to that extent. All other provisions remain unaffected.

3.5 Jurisdiction

A loan made under this Schedule C is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the Company was incorporated. Each party submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of that jurisdiction. No party may argue, on the basis of the doctrine of forum non conveniens or any other basis, that the courts of that jurisdiction should not exercise jurisdiction.
